Opis produktu

Made with Lenzing FR®, a natural viscose fiber that provides exceptional flame resistance and protection against heat transfer, this Alpinestars ZX EVO V2 balaclava features a stretchy, open mesh construction at the mouth and neck areas for improved airflow and ventilation. Combining light weight and seamlessness for optimum comfort, this hood also features a double layer on the face area for extra protection and a mouth opening for access to the hydration system tube. Approval: FIA 8856-2018
