Opis produktu

This connection cable is specifically for the BMW G series and the Toyota Supra. One end of the wiring harness has the two 8 and 10-fold Molex connectors to be connected directly to the MFD28 or MFD32, the other end is equipped with the appropriate pins to be connected to the junction box in the passenger footwell without having to cut the cables. In contrast to the BMW E and F series wiring harness, only Can High/Low are removed from the original connectors. 12V ignition plus and ground are brought out as an additional fuse adapter or as a ring cable lug and can be connected to other points.
