Opis produktu

These are the individual springs and shims sold in our FMRV2SPK kit for our large blow off valve FMDVRAYV2.

Please use the table below to find the part number required and then select it from the drop-down list above.

The picture above illustrates the valve assembly, please note that only one shim can be used and how the shim fits between the piston and the spring

Note: Serious or permanent damage may occur to the engine and associated components if this product is incorrectly matched to the individual engine requirements.
