Opis produktu

This kit consist of a specially designed heat shield, filter mounting bracket and associated hardware for installing a Radium Engineering fuel filter(sold separately) in the Nissan R35 GT-R. The anodized aluminum bracket secures to the Nissan R35 GT-R chassis using pre-existing threaded bosses. This location is ideal because it is substantially far from the hot downpipes. Also provided is a hose bracket and hardware that secures the fuel hoses further towards the front of the vehicle. All hardware is stainless steel.

Features

- Uses Threaded Bosses in OEM Chassis
- No Permanent Modifications Required
- Billet Anodized Aluminum Clamps
- Clamp Diameter: 60mm (2.36")
