GReddy Circuit Spec Center Pipe Specifications
Known worldwide for its exhausts, the Japanese manufacturer GReddy presents the Circuit Spec center pipe for Mazda RX-7 FD3S with 13B-REW engine. This 80mm diameter tube removes the standard catalyst and improves gas flow, engine response and overall performance. As it removes an important part of the car's emission control system, its use is prohibited on open roads. This part is made of polished SUS304 stainless steel for superior durability and is supplied with the necessary hardware for mounting.
