Opis produktu

GT2I PRO BALACLAVA FIA 8856-2018 Our FIA 8856-2018 homologated balaclava has been designed for passionate drivers who make no compromises when it comes to safety, style and comfort. Exceptional Features: New SoftGT Fiber: Our open balaclava revolutionizes standards with the introduction of SoftGT fiber. Not only does it offer exceptional protection against flames, it also ensures a soft feel against the skin. Drive with confidence, combining safety and comfort. Tubular design: Comfort is essential for driving freely, whether you're behind the wheel of your single-seater, rally car, rally-raid or drift car. Our balaclava adopts a tubular design, eliminating uncomfortable seams and adapting perfectly to the natural shape of your head thanks to the elasticity of SoftGT fiber. FIA Certified - Your Safety Comes First: Compliance with FIA 8856-2018 standards means this balaclava is approved for the most demanding motor racing competitions. Safety should never be compromised, and with our balaclava, it isn't. Lightweight, breathable, high-performance: This balaclava doesn't just guarantee safety. It's also lightweight, breathable and designed to maximize your performance. Stay cool, stay focused, and dominate every run. Order Your Performance: Choose excellence. Choose the GT2I PRO FIA 8856-2018 balaclava with the new SoftGT fiber. Your quest for perfection starts here. Order today to ride in style, comfort and safety! Features: Available in 2 colors: white (grey mottled white) and black. Design made in France One size fits all SoftGT fiber Homologation FIA 8856-2018
