Opis produktu

MG-69 is a versatile product widely used at home, in workshops, and across industries. Key applications include: Moisture displacement: Removes moisture from electrical systems, contacts, and components. Corrosion prevention: Forms a protective layer that prevents metal rusting. Rust loosening: Helps dissolve rust and loosens stuck bolts and nuts. Lubrication: Ideal for hinges, locks, bicycle chains, and other mechanisms. Cleaning: Removes glue, tar, resin, wax, grease, and stubborn dirt. Polishing: Restores shine to metal surfaces. Assembly aid: Eases fitting/removal of mechanical parts. Non-stick protection: Prevents adhesion, e.g., on casting molds. Stain removal: Can clean stains from fabrics, carpets, and surfaces. Tool maintenance: Protects tools from rust and keeps them in good condition. MG-69 vs. WD-40® Like WD-40, MG-69: Displaces moisture Lubricates Removes contaminants Penetrates stuck parts Prevents corrosion Plus MG-69 adds: Advanced cleaning: Breaks down glue and grime using electrochemical surface bonding. Deeper moisture control: Leaves a microfilm that repels future moisture; safe on insulation. Strong penetration: Effective on rusty parts without damaging paint. Durable lubrication: Long-lasting, suitable for hard-to-reach areas. Superior protection: Stops rust at the source and prevents future oxidation. Dielectric strength: 45 kV – safe for electrical components. Manual spray bottle: Precise application without aerosol gas. Metal Guard brand products are not shipped to the Sweden and Spain.
