Opis produktu

A replacement Pleated Cotton Filter Unit for this RacingLine VWR12P1GT Intake. This Cotton Filter option is a robust 'fit and forget' unit that will deliver great power gains, plus last for years. It can be fitted into this RacingLine Intake (including an intake originally fitted with a Trifoam® filter unit). This is a simple straight replacement Pleated Cotton Filter Unit, ready to drop into your existing RacingLine intake. This Pleated Cotton Filter option is a robust 'fit and forget' unit that will not only give great initial power output but requires no maintenance to last you for many years. With the option of either this Pleated Cotton filter or the Trifoam® option, the choice is yours. Note: fitment is only for this RacingLine Air Intake.
