Opis produktu

This RacingLine Magnetic Sump Plug is suitable for a wide range of performance VAG models. Applications include the latest 2.0 TSI EA888 gen.4 as used in Golf 8 GTI/R, Audi S3 8Y, plus multiple applications for Audi 2.5, 3.0, 2.9 and 4.0 S/RS cars, and all 3.0 TDI engines. The RacingLine Magnetic Sump/Oil Pan Plug is a simple yet effective upgrade that can dramatically increase your engine's lifespan. As an engine wears, tiny metallic particles become suspended in the oil, accelerating wear each time you drive. Installing the RacingLine magnetic sump plug will help to separate these ferrous particles out. There's no avoiding it - your engine's contact surfaces wear a tiny amount each time it runs. So it becomes inevitable that tiny ferrous particles become suspended in the oil, making their way around your engine via the oil system for thousands of miles traveling over sensitive components such as your crankshaft bearings or camshaft caps, slowly contributing to increased engine wear. RacingLine's Magnetic Sump Plug uses a large surface area of the magnetic end help to catch such particles, therefore cleansing your oil allowing it to more effectively lubricate, whilst minimising future potential wear before it happens. And of course, the harder your engine works, the greater the risk of this metallic debris, meaning the greater the benefit of using RacingLine's Magnetic Sump Plug. The RacingLine Magnetic Sump Plug is produced from T6061 lightweight aluminium and is anodised in our trademark gloss-black finish, and is supplied with a pack of 5 sealing washers included for your next five oil changes (additional packs of washers can be ordered separately). Multiple applications for a wide range of performance VAG models, including 2.0 TSI EA888 gen.4, 2.5 TFSI DAZA & DWNA, 3.0 V6T EA839, 2.9 V6TT EA839, 4.0 V8TT EA824, 3.0 TDI EA897 and 1.0 TSI EA211 Insist on RacingLine Magnetic Sump Plug at your next service!
