Opis produktu

A pair of alloy male to male bayonet style 65mm couplers. One coupler has inline bayonet nipples and the other offset. This pair of couplers replace the pressed steel hose couplers that are found on the VW / Audi/SEAT/Skoda 130 hp diesel engines (ASZ engine code). The couplers connect the boost pipework to the intercooler (see diagrams below) This replacement eliminates the problem of the OEM couplers blowing apart. This upgrade is advisable to all software upgraded, or tuned engines and higher mileage standard vehicles.

PLEASE NOTE: THE ORIGINAL O-RINGS/SEALS MUST BE RETAINED FOR USE ON THE FORGE HOSES
