Opis produktu

Introducing the highly anticipated Xforce Varex cat back exhaust system for the BMW F87 M2. Engineered for performance and precision, this exhaust system takes your driving experience to the next level. Designed to bolt directly to the factory downpipe, the system seamlessly splits into a twin 2.5" center section, ensuring excellent ground clearance. The flow then collects into a single 3" pipe, entering the Varex muffler. Experience a deep and aggressive exhaust note that will turn heads wherever you go. Crafted with meticulous attention to detail, the Xforce Varex cat back exhaust system is built to last, providing maximum durability and performance. The quad 4" tip outlet adds a touch of style to your BMW F87 M2, making a bold statement. Get ready to unleash the true potential of your BMW F87 M2 with the Xforce Varex cat back exhaust system. Elevate your driving experience and enjoy the power, performance, and the commanding sound that this system delivers. Upgrade today and make a statement on the road. 304 Stainless steel Clamps to factory down pipe Slits to twin 2.5" Collects to single 3" Varex rear muffler with dual outlet Quad 4" tips
