Opis produktu

Introducing the revolutionary Xforce Varex cat back exhaust system designed specifically for the BMW F22 M135i. Unleash the true potential of your vehicle with this high-performance exhaust upgrade. With a seamless bolt-on installation, this system directly connects to the factory downpipe, ensuring a perfect fit. The twin 2.5" center section provides exceptional ground clearance while optimizing exhaust flow. The flow then converges into a single 3" pipe, entering the Varex muffler, resulting in an aggressive and throaty exhaust note that commands attention. Crafted with precision and durability in mind, the Xforce Varex cat back exhaust system is built to withstand the test of time. The system features dual 4" tip outlets, adding a touch of style and distinction to your BMW F22 M135i. Experience the exhilaration of improved performance and an unmistakable sound as you accelerate through the gears. Upgrade your BMW F22 M135i with the Xforce Varex cat back exhaust system and make a statement on the road. Upgrade today and take your driving experience to new heights.
